

Name: _____

Teacher: Coffman

Date : _____

Title of Work: "Bowling Alone"

	Criteria				Points
	1	2	3	4
Identifying/Marking important information in the article	Some sections have no marks or many key ideas are not marked.	Each section has some information marked, but many key ideas are not marked.	Each section has information marked, including the key ideas.	The key ideas in each section are marked along with marginal notations.	—
Identifying and defining unknown vocabulary.	No or very few vocabulary words are marked.	Several vocabulary words are marked but are not defined.	Several vocabulary words are marked and defined.	Most or all sections have marked and defined vocabulary words.	—
Responding to Cornell Notes questions.	Fewer than half of the Cornell Notes questions are answered.	More than half the questions are answered, but answers are not specific/developed or are copied from an outside source.	Most or all questions are answered with some elaboration or supporting evidence.	All questions are answered with supporting evidence and elaboration.	—
Composing concise yet complete summaries of key sections.	Summary boxes are not completed.	Some summary boxes are completed, but do not capture the key ideas.	Summary boxes are completed, and summaries include most of the key ideas.	Summary boxes are completed, and summaries capture the key ideas.	—
					—
				Total---->	—

Teacher Comments: