

Frankenstein, ch. 13 & 14

Consider how the story of the DeLacey's corresponds with the rest of the novel thus far. What parallels do you see between their story and others' in the novel? What parallels are there in the characters, themes, descriptions, etc.? Complete the graphic organizer below delineating these parallels.

