

Robert Walton's Body Biography
Frankenstein, Letters I-III

As you read Letters I -III in Frankenstein, analyze Robert Walton's character. Create a "body biography" for Walton by labelling the body diagram on the right using the questions below as a guide. For each answer, include a visual, text summary (could be one word), and a quote from the novel as support.

1. Head: What is his goal?
2. Feet: What gets him going? What motivates him?
3. Heart: What are his virtues/good qualities?
4. Heel: What is his Achilles heel? What are his vices/bad qualities?
5. Hands: What does he hold dear? What does he value?
6. Shoulders: What are his burdens?
7. You decide: If he had a tattoo what would it be? Where would it be?

