

Sir Thomas Wyatt
"Whoso List to Hunt"
pp. 214-215

1. Why was Wyatt in prison?
2. What new kind of poem did he bring to England? From where?
3. Why were his poems not published?
4. Who inspired him to write "Whoso List to Hunt"?
5. What author did he imitate?
6. To what does Wyatt compare courtship in his poem?
7. What does "Noli me tangere" mean?
8. Who is the hind in the poem?
9. Who is represented by Caesar in the poem?
10. Who is the speaker of the poem?
11. What warning does the speaker give potential "hunters"?
12. What image does the speaker use to show he's finally decided the chase is hopeless?
13. When the speaker says the hind may seem tame but is "wild for to hold," what do you think he means?
14. Describe the structure of the poem (rhyme scheme, meter, stanzas).